NOTE FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
FROM: Executive Assistant to the DDCI

Bob,

When you speak to the Commission tomorrow (Room 6D-57), you can expect them to ask you about:

- Who has responsibility for tracking, reporting on Soviet overhead surveillance of the U.S.?
- Status/effectiveness of interagency group exchanging views on interpretation of imagery [redacted]
- Views on dissemination problems.

2. They are struggling with how current entities could be fine-tuned a bit to strengthen the Community's performance in CI analysis. [redacted] has some ideas on how the new DCI Committee headed by O'Malley could serve as a focal point for doing what needs to be done. You are probably aware of all this but, if not, you might want to touch base with Tom.
